YEAR BOOK OF THE
STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

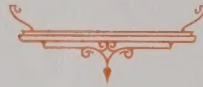

MURFREESBORO, TENN.

Dedication

This the Ninth Volume of the Midlander is gratefully dedicated to one whose manliness, courage and unfailing fellowship has been a constant source of inspiration

MR. K. T. HUTCHINSON

Knox T. Hutchinson

Foreword

*M*isfortunes and brevity of time have not held back all that might be called a Year Book. The contents of this book are efforts to mirror the pleasant experiences of the past year of college life at the State Teachers College and to register another year in her steady march of progress.

Library

This building is beginning to feel the need of elastic walls. It has about reached its capacity in accommodation, but the demand on it is growing every day. We have every right to be proud of our library! One of two things must happen in the near future—either the Profs will have to decrease the number of pages of outside reading, or we will have to get a new building. Hats off to the librarians, Mrs. Murfree and Miss Cotheran, because they have helped to make us happy in our work!

*Rutledge
Hall*

The oldest residence hall on the campus, but still very popular. The building inherited its name from one who holds fondest memories of her stay as hostess—Mrs. Elma Rutledge. Mrs. Rutledge has not been on our campus for some four years now. “Home” is the prevailing atmosphere in this building at present under the understanding leadership of Mrs. B. S. Oldham, hostess.

*Jones
Hall*

A new experience existed this year for some of the girls. Jones Hall, formerly a Boy's dorm., was turned over to the girls this year. An April Fool party in this building proved a great home-coming for some of the gents. This was the second residence hall erected on the campus and it has been distinguished by the name of Jones Hall in honor of the first President of this institution, Mr. R. L. Jones.

*Lyon
Hall*

Fall of '29 saw a marvelous progress on the State Teachers College campus. A second dormitory for girls had been erected. How proud we were to own three large residence halls! Its name was well chosen to pay tribute to one who saw visions and realized realities in the existence of such a building—Mr. P. A. Lyon, our President.

ATHLETICS

Frank A. Faulkinberry
Coach

This first year as a member of the S. I. A. A. was a mansized task, but we all feel like Coach turned in a good performance. Considering the material with which he had to work, he had a good season. However, he is more optimistic about next year's eleven that he has ever been before. So once more we give him our heartiest applause and pledge our loyalty to a great leader and an understanding friend.

FOOTBALL

WILLIAM (DUB) WOODS

Manager

Keeping tab on nasty sweatshirts, socks, muddy shoes, and all the other paraphernalia necessary for pigskin activity is no fun, but in this corner Ladies and Gentlemen! we have the champion tab-keeper of 'em all. He's served in that role for four years and hasn't raised one single protest to all the cussing and kickings that went with it. Three cheers for an extra good manager! May the others who come after him do half as well.

FOOTBALL

CHARLIE KERR

This slender, smiling chap was known as one of the cleanest players ever to wear the Blue and White. He is a brother to the famous Bob Kerr who used to play at the other end of the line. Though seriously injured near the close of the season he will be ready to go next fall for his last year.

HERMAN SMITH

A dandy, high-stepping running halfback. He hit them and they rarely arose. He got his inspiration from a blonde lass, one Bonnie Jones. He was called "The Flying Squirrel." One more year is due him.

ROBERT ROTH

The lightweight half who makes up for lack of weight in speed. Despite his size he can crack a line wide open and hold his own with anybody's tough guy. His sudden dash around is characteristic. He is blonde and has one more year to play.

CAPTAIN EMERSON HENDRIX

The last chapter of his college career saw the big center from McMinnville leading a crippled team through one of the most difficult schedules the school has tackled in years. We aren't likely to forget the fine work of the '31 Captain, one of the most popular and versatile athletes that the campus has ever claimed.

SMART PARIS

Coach Faulkinberry said, "He has possibilities of being the greatest guard that we have ever developed here at the college." Not a bad compliment! Paris is a hard fighter and does he love the game?

ELIJAH HARRIS

Although he suffered a world of hard luck in the way of injuries, he has the distinction of being a four-year letter man. He was the team and school clown and greatly liked by all. They do say he changed from a serious frosh and soph to a sober, studious junior and senior. Dan Cupid wrought the metamorphosis.

HUBERT YOUNG

Another player who was not aware of such things as footballs until he came to college. But he made a letter as a fast-stepping end. It is reported that he has quit the gridiron for basketball—and other things.

BOB REYNOLDS

Rated as the most promising athlete ever to enter this college, he may not be back next year, and still he may. One always takes chances when talking about the future of this lad. He was very popular on the campus, and starred on the hardwood floor as well as on the gridiron.

FOOTBALL

RICHARD OSTEEN

Serious-minded, devoted to his school, dependable, cool-headed, are a few of the many things we might say about Osteen. We will miss his friendly smile and sterling leadership next year. All join in wishing him the best of luck!

BROWNLOW SHARPE

The Morgan Terror! Football is his first and only love. With two more years before him he should do things to write headlines in the school paper about. His great weakness is stepping on his own lip.

FRANK HARGIS

One who was able to play only during his senior year. One season he was plagued with boils when he seemed to have a good chance of lettering. He was admired for his spirit. He plans to coach and is expected to go far in that field.

LUTHER SMITH

Hail! the Captain enters! Remember that thrilling touchdown run he made that day up on the Tech field. Since coming here three years ago, he's shown wonderful improvement. A great fullback. We know the boys didn't go wrong when they chose him to lead the gang in 1932.

FOOTBALL

WINSTEAD MOORE

There's no need for us to say much here—just watch the papers next fall and they'll tell you plenty about this flashy back, who could have been the pride of any team in the Southern Conference. He has been classed by prominent sports critics as one of the best punters and broken-field runners in the country.

CHARLES HOLT

He possesses red hair and what usually goes with it—fight and plenty of it. He claims to have played in the first game he ever saw, which was at Chattanooga two years ago. One more year to go for him, and it should be his best, if the Brooks dame stays on the campus.

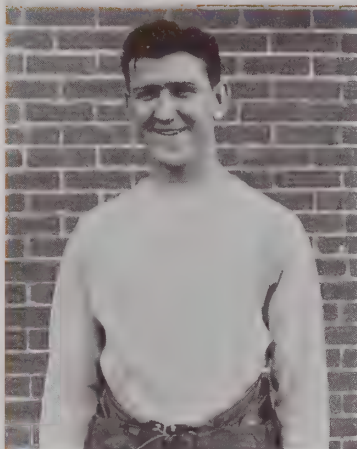

CHARLIE DAVIS

A Cornersville giant! The biggest man on the team and a very useful one, though he played the game only one year. That waitress in Bowling Green told him the best way to take his ice was to place it in his hip pocket and let it soak in. He's ineligible now.

SEABORN HOLT

Seabe has lettered during his last two years here. He was an A-student, witty, determined, aggressive. In addition he held the record for getting knocked cuckoo the greatest number of times.

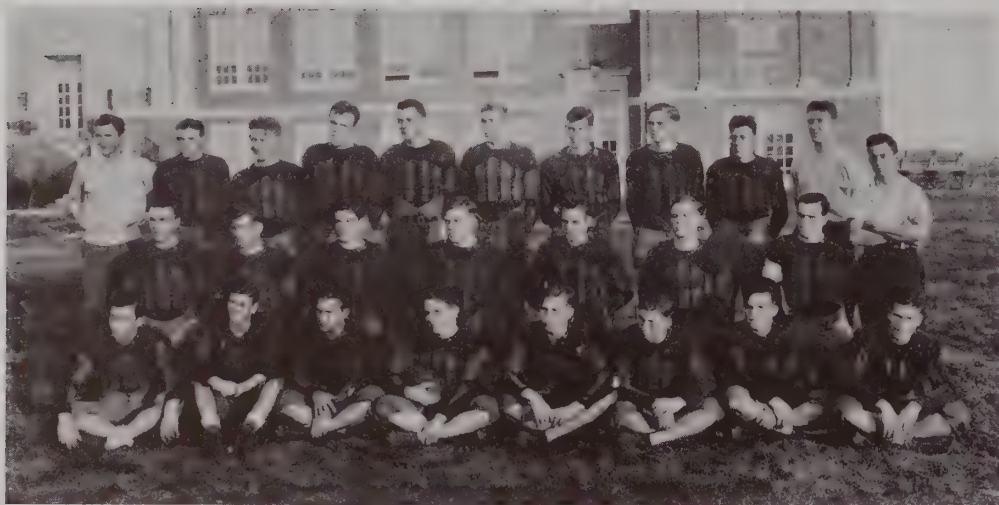

ROBERT KERR
Freshman Coach

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

The conference ruled Bob ineligible as a player, so he came back in the capacity of freshman coach. And you can bet all of your marbles he has everything that's necessary to make a great coach. With his personality and love for the game he's going far. His team's gallant stand against the Murray Rats, who were doped to take the tussle by 60 points, but who only got away with a scoreless tie, was one of the high-lights of the season. He graduates here this year too, but is coming back, we hope.

THE BASKETBALL SCRAPBOOK

We take the Ideal Aces for a long ride here in the season opener . . . Dick Osteen is captain for the second time . . . Santa Claus does Bob Reynolds wrong on the Yuletide exams . . . A tough blow to the team . . . Regular fireworks open with Union University, the first S. I. A. A. foe . . . Nothing much to remember about that one except that we won . . . Where were the Teachers when the lights went out? . . . Answer: up on the wild and cold Sewanee mountain a few points ahead . . . The last whistle at midnight . . . Some storm up there . . . Drinking very bitter tea up in T. P. I.'s big barn . . . That gym would make a good airplane shed . . . Somehow we always feel lost in it . . . The Chattanooga Moccasins here and we lick 'em . . . Bob Kerr kids Matusek about his girl from the sidelines . . . Mat doesn't do so hot . . . Hard to beat a game like this for thrills . . . Every time a player would take a crack at the wicker, Coach would call out "Be a good one Baby" . . . Everyone was standing up howling when the thing ended . . . We look like a real big-time team now . . . Hendrix is popular with the crowd . . . They like to see him make these long range shots that go through the nets so consistently . . . Going to Kentucky . . . Coach finds it necessary to use his belt on trainer Waters en route . . . The subs strut their stuff against Western . . . The bus breaks down on the way over to Murray . . .

BASKETBALL

Getting kicked by the Old Gray Murray Mare (No. 1) . . . Young's sensational night against Vanderbilt . . . He makes twenty points and is all over the court . . . The Nashvillians don't feel so good about it . . . Hindman's goal which cinches the Western game here in the last minute . . . The o'possum Hendrix caught and put in the beds that rainy night after Birmingham-Southern . . . Those bloody-hot warmup suits that the Transylvania fellows wore . . . Bowser Chest is calling some good games here . . . The Teachers seem to play better when he's in charge . . . Dick and Red butt conks in the Murray game here . . . Dick is pretty badly messed up . . . Kicked by the Old Murray Mare (No. 2) . . . Did the gang get a bargain in that Chattanooga hotel? . . . Bass, Holden, Holt, and Davis, the Four Horsemen of the Bench . . . Swell guys . . . The Peps refuse their return game . . . Terrors substituted . . . Sam Thompson comes up with the Terrors and has a grand night . . . Tech to be here on the last night of the season . . . Bob Reynolds becomes eligible . . . Dick Osteen back in shape . . . Wilson Sharpe is discovered by Coach . . . Headlines: "Teachers Beat Tech in Third Playoff" . . . Well, well, Believe-It-Or-Not Ripley oughta be told about this . . . Coach sent Bob and Dick back in when the extra playing time started and how hot they got . . . Bob stepped under the basket three times in the last playoff to make six points . . . The T. P. I. men had to pinch themselves to see if they were really alive . . . It was so unusual, you know . . . Curtain!

Miss Ordway—"Who was Joan of Arc that saved France?"
Zoolah—"You've got the characters all mixed up. It was 'Noah of Arc.' Jonah's the man that swallowed the whale."

Bonnie—"I don't believe you love me any more."

Squirrel—"What makes you say that?"

Bonnie—"The last few nights you have left before Mrs. Oldham gave you a special invitation."

McGlothin—"Look here, you've been 'owing me this bill for a year. I'll meet you half way. I'm ready to forget half that you owe."

Lige—"Fine, I'll meet you. I'll forget the other half."

Mr. Hutchinson—"Gray, what caused the explosion at the poultry house yesterday?"
Gray Sands—"I fed a chicken some 'Lay or Bust' feed and it turned out to be a rooster."

Mr. Davis—"Do you think Bunyon Brock is a very bright student? Does he seem to know anything?"

Mr. Jones—"Know anything? Why he doesn't even suspect anything."

Joe Wallace—"They say bread contains a little alcohol; let us drink a little toast!"

Dr. White—"Have you been drinking 10 glasses of water every day as I told you?"

Roy George—"Yes, I have been drinking 6 cups of coffee and 4 glasses of water."

Dr. White—"But coffee and water aren't the same."

Roy George—"They are in my shop."

Fortune Teller—"You are going to marry a tall dark man."

Eliz. Watson—"Can't you be more specific. They are all four tall and dark."

Lillian—"Do you think that kissing is improper?"

Martin—"Well, let's put our heads together and consider."

Bob Kerr—"Dick, that picture of Annie Lou on your table is a speaking likeness of her."

Dick—"Yes but thank goodness the picture isn't a talkie."
